

Beginning Bird Watching Classes

For ages 8 – 80

Sponsored by Friends of Turnbull and Spokane Audubon Society

FRIENDS OF TURNBULL
NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE
CHENEY, WASHINGTON

Beginning Bird Watching Classes will meet on Saturday mornings of the spring months from 9:00 – 11:00 am. Gather at the Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge Classroom Building.

Choose one: March 7 – April 4 – May 9 – June 6

The classes will include:

- 1) recognizing size, shape, beak, color to identify birds,
- 2) instruction and practice using binoculars,
- 3) using field guides,
- 4) birds to look for at Turnbull NWR, walking around Pine Lake trail.

Participants: individuals, couples, families with children, 8 and older welcome when accompanied by an adult.

Sign up for one session – each session limited to 15 participants. Classes are free with the $3.00 entrance fee to Refuge.

To register (pre-registration required) send email to activities@fotnwr.org, or leave message at 509-448-2291; register online at eventbrite.com > "Beginning Bird Watching Classes" or link at fotnwr.org/activities.html