FOT Mission: The Friends of Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge is a nonprofit organization that advocates for and supports the mandate of the refuge to protect and enhance wildlife and their habitats through education, research, habitat preservation and restoration and compatible public uses.

Event Goal: to raise funds for the Environmental Education Intern (Americorps/WA Service Corps) for the Refuge. The Environmental Education staff plus volunteers engage over 8500 students, K-12, from our area in field trips and classroom visits each year. Help us continue this support by participating and supporting the event with a donation.
